Gospel Passage

Luke 20:27 There came to him some Sadducees, those who say that there is no resurrection, 28 and they asked him a question, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man must take the wife and raise up children for his brother. 29 Now there were seven brothers; the first took a wife, and died without children; 30 and the second 31 and the third took her, and likewise all seven left no children and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife." 34 And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage; 35 but those who are accounted worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, 36 for they cannot die any more, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in the passage about the bush, where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. 38 Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to him."

Questions

1. The Sadducees were a group of people who said no one can come back from being dead. How do we know that they're wrong? Do you know someone who came back from being dead?
2. Jesus calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Is he also the God of your parents? Of your grandparents? Who else?
3. Jesus says there will be no more weddings in heaven. Since he is God, he knows. Marriage is a sacrament for this world, to help us, like all the sacraments, to get to heaven. But will there still be love in heaven?
