Gospel Passage

Luke 23:35 And the people stood by, watching; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" 36 The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, 37 and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" 38 There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." 39 One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" 40 But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? 41 And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." 42 Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." 43 He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Questions

1. Christ is our King, which means He rules every part of our lives. Do you treat Jesus like a King? Do you give up some of your time for Him? Do you use your talents to help others for Him?

2. Christ did have the power, as King and Lord of the whole world, to come down from the Cross and save himself. Why do you think He didn't save himself?

3. One of the robbers in the story asked Jesus to remember him in heaven. Do you ask Jesus to remember you?

You may use the back side of this sheet of paper to write more. You are encouraged to ask for your parents' help in answering these questions. This homework must be turned in to those taking CCD attendance, or, if there's no CCD, to the homework box before Mass.
