Gospel Passage

Matt. 5:20 For I tell you, unless your holiness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. 21 "You have heard that it was said to the men of old, 'You shall not kill; and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment.' 22 But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be liable to the hell of fire. 27 "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I say to you that every one who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 33 "Again you have heard that it was said to the men of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.' 34 But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, 37 Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No'; anything more than this comes from evil.

Questions

1. Jesus says that in order to enter into heaven, our holiness has to be greater than that of the scribes and pharisees. How do we become holy? How does God try to make us holy? (Hint: a 10 letter word starting & ending with "s").
2. Several times in this passage, Jesus quotes a part of the Old Testament and then says, "But I say to you." What do you think Jesus was trying to show by saying "I say to you" in contrast with the word of God in Sacred Scripture?
3. Jesus says that being angry with someone else is like killing them. Why do you think he says this?

You may use the back side of this sheet of paper to write more. You are encouraged to ask for your parents' help in answering these questions. This homework must be turned in to those taking CCD attendance, or, if there's no CCD, to the homework box before Mass.
