Gospel Passage

Matt. 11:25 At that time Jesus said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; 26 yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. 27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. 28 Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Questions

1. Jesus says "Come to me, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens and I will give you rest." Do you go to Jesus in prayer when you are sad to have him make you feel better?
2. Jesus says that he is meek (gentle) and humble of heart. Are you gentle and humble of heart like him?
3. Jesus says that God sometimes hides things from the people the world are smartest while telling them to children. Sometimes young kids can see God's truth better than adults can, because sometimes adults can make things too hard and make too many excuses. Can you give an example when this has happened to you?

You may use the back side of this sheet of paper to write more. You are encouraged to ask for your parents' help in answering these questions. This homework must be turned in to those taking CCD attendance, or, if there's no CCD, to the homework box before.
