Robin Dinda - Guest Organist

Organ Recital, Complimentary tea following.

Robin Dinda began playing the organ and composing at age eight, and, after some piano lessons from his grandmother, Emma Dinda, was mostly self-taught. Dinda played his first European recitals at age sixteen, performing organ concerts in Germany that included his own compositions. Since then he has performed across the United States, at many national and regional conventions, and in duo-concerts with his wife, Renea Waligora. Robin Dinda is Professor of Humanities (Music) at Fitchburg State College in Fitchburg, Massachusetts. He is also Director of Music at The First Parish (Unitarian -Universalist) in Fitchburg.
